

CULTURAL ARTS AWARD

The Cultural Arts Division promotes literary, performing, and visual arts that celebrate the historic heritage and dynamic diversity of our community. By providing opportunities for enjoyment and enrichment, volunteers work with a variety of activities – festivals, classes, concerts, exhibits, and organizations. The Cultural Arts Award is presented to a deserving volunteer involved with the Cultural Arts Division. The recipient of this award is one who is supportive of the Town of Cary's cultural programs; resourcefully promotes the arts and appreciation of music, dance, theatre, literary and visual arts, multi-cultural arts awareness and historic appreciation; assists staff and other committee members in carrying out the mission and goals of the Division; displays a well-rounded interest in all the arts; and demonstrates strong leadership qualities, serving as both an advisor and a doer. This volunteer must have a minimum of three years of volunteer service and can qualify for the award once every five years.

HERB YOUNG AWARD

This outstanding volunteer award is given each year in honor and memory of Herbert C. Young. Herb, a native of Cary, was for many years very much involved and interested in his community. In the early 1970s, Herb served on the Cary Town Council and served in various capacities on the Parks, Recreation & Cultural Resources (PRCR) Advisory Board since 1975. He volunteered for many special events offered by the PRCR department. He was always the first person to volunteer, the first one to get there, and usually the last to leave. The recipient of this award is a volunteer who assists PRCR staff in carrying out the department's mission and goals; is supportive and displays a strong interest in being involved in program/events of the PRCR Department; is well respected by peers, community, and staff; brings in new ideas; exemplifies strong leadership qualities; is a strong team player; takes assignments seriously; is always willing to pitch in with an extra effort; and, through his/her service, significantly contributes to the betterment of the community. This nominee must have a minimum of five years of service and can qualify for the award once every five years.

Please attach additional sheets as necessary.
